those dollars. Along those lines there is a companion change in the school employees plan that says that you cannot have credible service unless you are paid at least the minimum wage in that plan. And I'm sorry to report to you that that provision was the result of what we perceived as an attempt to abuse that particular plan by one individual in the state. I don't necessarily wish to recite for the record the abuse that was seen and maybe I shouldn't be characterizing it as abuse, but it certainly looked abusive, and it had the result of providing significant benefits to one individual at the cost...

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: One minute.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...of many other participants in the plan. So that change about credible service and the minimum wage is designed to, in some minor way, address an extremely, what we thought was an abuse attempt to use the plan. There is in the bill a requirement that.... I think I've covered that. I...if...members, if you will bear with me just a moment here, I am scrambling to remember what all is in that particular bill. I have my light on next and, Mr. Speaker, maybe I should just go to my light.

SPEAKER KRISTENSEN: Senator Wickersham, your...your light is the next light on.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. There is one other provision with regard to PERB powers that I forgot to mention and that is a generalized power for them to promulgate and adopt forms that would be necessary by reason of LB 1076 or other bills, and that is the other set of provisions in the bill is LB 1076. LB 1076 was a bill that would require various local governments that have authorized authorization from the Legislature to provide retirement plans. It would require them to report to the Legislature about those plans. Examples of the subdivisions that are affected are the natural resources districts, Wyuka Cemetery, Metropolitan Transit Authority, Metropolitan Utility Districts, cities of the primary class, cities of the first class--fire and police, cities of the first class--all except fire and police, cities of the second class, villages, counties with a population of more than 100,000 who have opted out of the County Employees Retirement Act, county
